Training and networks in Europe

Continuous training of professionals and talented individuals is essential to reinforce the competitiveness of the European audiovisual industry, a core objective of the MEDIA programme of the European Union. That is why ever since its beginnings in 1990 the MEDIA programme has devoted a substantial amount of its budget to co-finance training initiatives developed by professionals for professionals.

More than 1,500 professionals coming from countries participating in the MEDIA Programme are trained every year through MEDIA-funded training initiatives where they have the opportunity to acquire new skills, learn from others' mistakes or successes, fine-tune their projects thanks to experienced tutors, explore new technologies or expand their contact base.

For 2010, MEDIA has selected and co-financed 63 training courses in order to meet the demand from and the various needs of the industry across all sectors.

These training courses differ in format, length and target group. However, they all share common features:

- they are very European/international in their subjects, teaching/mentoring staff and participants;
- they are practical and highly relevant to current and future industry needs;
- they provide access to high-level professionals who are not necessarily accessible in other contexts;
- they are building blocks of Europe-wide networks.

The main purpose of this catalogue is to be helpful to the intended audience and to European audiovisual industry professionals in identifying and presenting the training activities, with the aim of meeting the needs of potential participants.

Which to choose?

This section is intended to help professionals navigating the guide and to choose more easily the courses that might best fit their needs. It gives a summarised overview of the 63 different courses included in the guide. Please go to the relevant section for more details, consult their websites or your closest MEDIA Desk.

SCRIPT DEVELOPMENT

Developing scriptwriting techniques and introducing new talents have been a major focus of MEDIA training since the beginning. The overall idea is also to strengthen the collaboration between writers, directors, producers, and script editors at the writing stage.

We propose eight different courses on script/story development. They mainly target experienced scriptwriters. Their objective is both to help the development of a script while developing scriptwriting techniques. They are project-based and hence preferably require at least a treatment and a first draft, and also preferably should have a producer attached. With the exception of éQuinoxe Germany, which is an intensive week-long workshop, they are year-long training courses, with several workshops favouring a group work approach with online sessions in between. SOURCES 2 is one of the most experienced programmes (with more than 80 films made). MFI Script 2 Film proposes longer residential workshops. ScriptTeast specifically targets scriptwriters from Central and Eastern Europe. Save our Scripts will help the development of projects from one-page idea to full script. Script&Pitch is linked to TorinoFilmLab, which can offer subsequent development and production financial support.

Pygmalion is specifically designed for the development of projects for child and family audiences across all audiovisual media (animation, fiction, etc.)

Sources 2 proposes a Mentor Training course for script editors, producers or commissioning editors working as mentors of scriptwriters.

PROJECT DEVELOPMENT & PRODUCTION

Developing and preparing a production has become an incredibly complex process, especially in the context of multi-country co-productions. The following training courses should help producers and production teams find their way through this complexity.

Producers wishing to develop a project can choose between Maia Workshops (for young producers, mainly from southeast Europe), EAVE (for young producers) and ACE (for the more experienced). These courses include sessions on story and script development; legal, budget and financing; and marketing and distribution strategies. EAVE and ACE, in particular, have built an extensive network of alumni producers<sup>1</sup> over the years and very strong relationships with major co-production markets, which have facilitated co-production in Europe.

1 Other major (non-training-specific) producers' networks in Europe include EFP Producers on the Move and the European Producers Club.

Nipkow offers a unique personalised mentoring programme on project development, including internships based in Berlin.

Two other training courses are more targeted at directors and directors/writers. Ekran is a three-session training course for creative teams (director, writer, cameraman and producer) including the shoot of a demo package. Les Ateliers Jeanne Moreau is an intensive week-long mentoring course under the guidance of Jeanne Moreau, helping young directors who are preparing their first film.

The pre-production phase is about making key strategic and financial choices and assembling the right team. We offer several courses to help producers make the best decisions.

Production Value will help first AD and line producers with scheduling and budgeting of complex multi-country co-production films. European Post Production Connection focuses on the importance of the early involvement of post-production supervisors in the creative process, planning and budgeting. Digital Production Challenge gives producers, executive producers and production managers the methods and tools to choose the best digital production workflow for their feature film projects and to optimise the communication between the various partners involved, from the director to the post-production provider.

MANAGEMENT, LEGAL & FINANCE

Having a broad Management, legal & finance culture to be able to understand the business environment is an absolute must to develop in the long term. Here is some food for thought.

Young professionals at the start of their career have the choice between two different year-long in-depth courses on the full production, distribution and exploitation cycle supplemented by industry placements: the Franco-German Atelier run jointly by La Fémis and the Ludwigsburg Filmakademie, and the Spain-based MEGA run by Media Business School (MBS).

For more experienced executives, we propose two high-level training courses: Training the Management of Tomorrow's Digital Media is a year-long management course for executives, which provides a solid understanding of how traditional business models are challenged and how the creative industries operate and innovate in the light of today's digital economy. Screen Leaders EU is a strategic custom-designed company development programme devised for experienced owner/managers (CEO/CFO).

We also offer several specialised intensive workshops on legal and finance issues. The Erich Pommer Institut's Rights Clearance seminar and workshop offers the practical knowledge to identify and clear rights fast and effectively. Both the EPI Legal and Financial Aspects workshops and the EAVE Film Finance Forum provide an update of the latest financial developments and funding sources in Europe, co-production and the legal issues involved, tax incentives, the sales and distribution market, banking services and new industry trends.

MARKETING, DISTRIBUTION & EXHIBITION

A successful distribution campaign starts very early and requires the collaboration of the whole chain from production to theatres and other platforms. Here are some places where everybody talks about how best to reach the audience.

Professionals wishing to expand their knowledge of (feature film) positioning, marketing and distribution strategies can choose between the EAVE Film Marketing Workshops and Marketing and Distribution of MBS.

Festival or cinema programme managers have the possibility of refining their programming, marketing and audience management skills through the ICO Cultural Cinema Exhibition Course 2010. Cinema exhibitors can also choose the Art Cinema = Action + Management course by CICAE<sup>1</sup>.

1 The Europa Cinemas network also offers networking and training opportunities to its 600 members in Europe.

Professionals wishing to invest in digital projection can benefit from Digitraining by MEDIA Salles.

ANIMATION

Animation is one the fastest growing sectors in Europe with ever growing needs in new skills. The following should help to keep up with the demand.

Cartoon, one of the pillar organisations in the animation industry, offers three different 2.5 day events open to animation professionals:

Cartoon Digital is dedicated to new technologies; Cartoon Finance to public and private funding in Europe for animation and the management and exploitation of rights;

Cartoon Feature to the marketing and financing of animation films and stereoscopic 3D production.

EAMprofessional aims to bridge the gap to animation and will train professionals (not necessarily from an animation background) in the specificities of animation film production (script, financing, production, distribution).

La Poudrière offers an 11-week training course for professionals wishing to adapt a book into an animation film or series.

Animators wishing to expand their skills in 3D animation can choose between courses offered by The Animation Workshop and Anomalia.

DOCUMENTARY

The documentary world has never been so diverse in forms, formats and voices. Our offering reflects this diversity.

Independent documentary professionals wishing to develop a documentary project can choose between the following training courses: Documentary Campus Masterschool is a 10-month training course open to up-and-coming talent wishing to expand into the international non-fiction market. Documentary Campus also offers conference-style Open Training Sessions. The EURODOC Production course is designed for producers with documentary projects – one-offs or series – with international potential. ESoDoc focuses on a special genre of documentary production that is particularly suitable for the new multiplatform world: documentaries that draw attention to human rights, social justice and environmental protection, particularly in the developing world. Ex Oriente Film 2010 is a year-long training course on documentary films, aimed at Central and East European teams (1 director + 1 producer). Archidoc (La Fémis) is oriented towards professionals with an archive-based project while Story Doc focuses on historical documentaries.

The Euradoc Executives Workshop is a two-workshop course designed to open a new meeting space for commissioning executives to reinforce exchange, transmission and reflection in the documentary field, while SOURCES 2 Script Development Workshops are three-month training processes offering special work groups on writing and developing feature-length creative documentaries.

NEW MEDIA

Digital media definitely opens up new opportunities to develop innovative content, and new ways to reach and interact with the audience.

We propose three training courses specifically targeted at professionals wishing to develop cross/transmedia or cross-platform projects.

The Pixel Lab is proposed by Power to the Pixel and offers a link to its conference and pitch event in London. Transmedia Next provides an immersion into all aspects of transmedia storytelling. The MBS Multiplatform Business School course has a strong emphasis on games.

New media filmmakers can also refine their business skills through the Digital Distribution Strategy workshop organised by the EPI.

NEW TECHNOLOGIES

With an increasing number of (small and big) 3D-ready screens, the demand for 3D content will explode.

Professionals wishing to explore or fine tune their techniques in 3D production have the choice between several 3D workshops: a Master Class for creative teams organised by the European Film Academy, a six-day intensive general training course run in Paris by Avance Rapide, a project-based course proposed by FAS, and sessions run by CIANT in Romania, mainly targeting Central and Eastern Europe.

Ciant also proposes very specialised sessions on HDTV retrieval and real-time content distribution in network-driven industrial scenarios, distributed post-production techniques in the field of visual effects, and preservation techniques and methodologies for digital audiovisual works.

Archive, restoration and preservation techniques will also be the subject of FRAME - Future for Restoration of Audiovisual Memory in Europe by INA and of the Film Restoration Summer School of the Cinemateca di Bologna.

TOSMI – Training on Open Source Multimedia Instruments – teaches alternatives to non-proprietary software for 3D animation, simulation and post-processing.

MULTIDISCIPLINARY

And last but not least...

The Berlinale Talent Campus is an international summit of talented up-and-coming filmmakers. The six-day programme is an annual event that takes place in parallel with the Berlin International Film Festival. The Campus and its participants benefit from their proximity to the main festival centre and the European Film Market (EFM).

USEFUL TIPS

- Check deadlines and dates regularly – they are subject to change;
  - Training fees vary from one training course to another. However, bursaries can be provided by the training organisations or by local/regional/national authorities.

What can MEDIA do for you?

The MEDIA programme gives support to companies for the development, distribution and promotion of projects and works.

MARKET ACCESS

MEDIA supports most major co-production, general or thematic markets in Europe in order to foster the greatest possible diversity and quality of projects, works and professionals represented.

MEDIA UMBRELLA STANDS at the European Film Market (Berlin), MIPTV, MIPCOM and the Marché du Film at the Festival de Cannes.

MEDIA provides an umbrella stand on attractive financial terms providing advisory and logistic services for European professionals. If you are interested, please go to www.media-stands.eu for further information about accreditation and the services offered.

MEDIA INTERNATIONAL

MI is an initiative to strengthen cultural and commercial relations between Europe's film industry and filmmakers around the world. In 2010 it finances training, networking and market events for international projects. In 2011 MEDIA International will be succeeded by the programme MEDIA MUNDUS.

DEVELOPMENT FUNDING

MEDIA Development has the objective of promoting, through financial support, the development of audiovisual projects intended for European and international markets presented by independent European production companies in the following categories: animation, creative documentary and drama. Similar support is provided for the development of on and off-line interactive works that are specifically developed to complement an audiovisual project.

The development support is a grant that can be provided to:

- support a Single Project;
- support a Slate of projects (3 to 6 projects);
- support an Interactive Work.

ACCESS TO FINANCE

"i2i Audiovisual" is designed to facilitate access to financing from banks and other financial institutions by subsidising part of the cost of the guarantees required by these institutions and/or part of the financing itself.

SUPPORT FOR TELEVISION BROADCASTING

This funding seeks to encourage independent European audiovisual production companies to produce work (fiction, documentaries or animated films) that involves the participation or cooperation of at least three broadcasters – and preferably more – from several Member States.

SUPPORT TO DISTRIBUTION

MEDIA encourages the circulation of European audiovisual works among the different countries participating in the programme.

The following financial backing is available: automatic and selective support to distributors and sales agents. MEDIA also supports the distribution of European audiovisual works at other levels:

- Video on Demand (VoD): service enabling individuals to select audiovisual works from a central server for viewing on a remote screen by streaming and/or downloading;
- Digital Cinema Distribution (DCD): digital delivery (to an acceptable commercial standard) of content to cinemas for theatrical exploitation (via hard disk, satellite, online etc.);
- support for cinemas through the Europa Cinema network.

MFI Script 2 Film Workshops

Mediterranean Film Institute /
Mesogeiaiko Institutou Kinimatografou

DESCRIPTION

This advanced script and project development programme, based on group work, Q&A sessions, case studies & individual consultations, consists of four intensive workshops (two on location in the Greek islands and two on-line hosted on MFI's website).

The primary objective is to develop fully the participating screenplays, from first or subsequent draft to final draft. Through a process of workshops that emphasise script analysis, revision and rewriting, the activity is designed to enhance the artistic values of the story material, at the same time aiming at producing solid screenplays that will have a strong dramatic impact for international audiences.

The second objective is to help participants to set up an effective project development process (presentation, pitching, fundraising and production strategies).

TARGET GROUP

Screenwriter/producer teams.

BENEFITS

Integrated knowledge of all aspects of project development, an introduction to the international industry's needs and practices, tools to improve project production potential in terms of markets and audiences, and help reach the production stage.

Prime 4Kids & Family (Pygmalion Plus)

Primehouse Gmbh

DESCRIPTION

Prime 4Kids & Family (aka Pygmalion Plus) is specifically designed for the development of projects for child and family audiences across all audiovisual media. It is run jointly by five European organisations, combining their experience in professional training and children's media.

At Prime 4Kids & Family, writers develop their projects and their craft through collaboration with experienced mentors (all distinguished writers), creative professionals from allied fields, including an ensemble of actors and director, and with an international group of fellow participants.

The cross-disciplinary approach and inclusion of film, tv drama, animation, interactive games and cross-platform projects within the programme provides an opportunity to gain new knowledge and contacts across the family entertainment industry.

TARGET GROUP

Professional writers, creative teams (writer + producer, director or animator + 5 support places for script editors/producers/development executives).

BENEFITS

Improved story/project development and scriptwriting skills; improved creative sensitivity to the specific target audience of young people and families; insight into the exploitation potential of other audiovisual platforms for their work; the opportunity for new contacts with major European tv and film industry players; contact with potential colleagues and collaborators from among participants and tutors and through the cooperation with Performing Arts Labs, UK, the Polish Film Institute, the Polish Filmmakers Association, and the Script Forum in Warsaw.

Script&Pitch Workshops

MGLAB Italia srl

DESCRIPTION

This is an advanced course following the whole scriptwriting process from the pitching of ideas to the treatment, through the first and second draft up to a final pitch in front of a panel of international producers, sales agents and other industry professionals from all over the world.

The course consists of:

- three week-long residential workshops in different EU cities;
- two on-line sessions;
- an alumni meeting.

There are five groups with one tutor each.

After the final pitching (in Turin) up to six development awards are given, providing the possibility of further developing the project during one more year with the TorinoFilmLab experts.

Script&Pitch tries to create as many synergies as possible, so that participants can become part of a network and build their own. Script&Pitch puts a lot of energy into consolidating this network, e.g. through the alumni meeting.

TARGET GROUP

Professional scriptwriters, story editors.

BENEFITS

Improved writing skills; enhanced pitching abilities; better knowledge of relationships within the industry; greater familiarity with and strengthened ties to the market; new networks of creative partners and industry players.

ScripTeast

Independent Film Foundation

DESCRIPTION

ScripTeast is a project-based training programme specifically for scriptwriters from Eastern and Central Europe.

The main goal is to improve the capability of professionals from Eastern European countries to orient their projects for, communicate with and identify European and international audiences, e.g. by changing the script to give it more universal appeal while preserving the individual character of the scenarios.

Training in assertiveness, improving social skills, absorbing positive signals from the outside, and in communication introduced by pitching training form the authors' 'artistic personality'?

The year-long programme consists of three sessions:

- stationary lab.;
- mid-term;
- final session with industry presentation.

There are two on-line follow-up consultations in between. During the Berlin and Cannes Film Festivals, authors and their scripts are promoted in strong cooperation with ACE and the Producers Network. The best script from each edition is presented with the Krzysztof Kieslowski ScripTeast Award (€10,000) during the Cannes Film Festival.

TARGET GROUP

Experienced scriptwriters from Eastern & Central Europe who have finished feature scripts.

BENEFITS

Seeing a scenario from the multiple perspectives of creative advisors from different countries and working in different professions; connections with the best writers and trends in world cinema at festivals; extension of the contacts necessary for furthering their career.

SOS (Save our Scripts)

The Bureau Film Company Ltd.

DESCRIPTION

This is a year-long, project-based, writing and development programme. It is composed of three residential workshops in three different cities and a number of one-on-one online meetings.

Each workshop consists of peer-to-peer development sessions, one-on-one meetings and master classes with experienced industry figures, including writers, producers, financiers and sales companies.

Writers will develop their selected one-page idea through to a developed feature-length script. At the same time, producers become involved in the development process, offering the writers the opportunity to strengthen their own development skills whilst simultaneously building cross-European relationships with the writers and other producers.

Writers' ideas will reach the stage of a developed script. Industry involvement in the workshops ensures that the scripts are developed with an awareness of the market.

The involvement of key industry figures offers networking opportunities and helps producers understand market concerns, and how they should be considered alongside development.

TARGET GROUP

Writers, producers.

BENEFITS

For writers: improved writing and pitching skills, and project-specific gains; building a pan-European support network. For producers: strengthened development skills; the start of future working relationships, including potentially on specific projects.

Andrzej Wajda's Masterschool of Film Directing Zoo

DESCRIPTION

This is a project-based programme, focusing on the creative pre-production process. It aims at advancing the participants' scripts from first draft to a shooting version, and preparing the projects for the screen.

Every participating project is represented by a team consisting of a director (or writer/director), a writer (or co-writer), a producer and a director of photography.

A large portion of the curriculum will focus on digital technology, from filming through to post-production.

Between the three sessions, participants are expected to develop new and further drafts of their scripts or treatments, and to write two full scenes to be shot at the second and third sessions.

TARGET GROUP

European directors, writers/directors, accompanied by their producer and (co-)writer and possibly cameraman.

BENEFITS

Networking with industry and fellow professionals; introduction to international industry needs and practices; tighter collaborative working processes between writer/co-writer, producer and DOP.

European Post Production Connection

Entre Chien et Loup scrl

DESCRIPTION

European Post Production Connection (EP2C) is a Post Production Management course for producers and post-production supervisors.

The objective is to show how to get the best out of the post-production stage of a European co-production, to save money and at the same time preserve the artistic ambitions of your films. The inputs of EP2C include a good knowledge of image and sound workflows, and of technical possibilities and post-production management methods, as well as connections with industry partners (visits to post-production facilities, events with professionals of regions hosting the workshop, presentation of your projects to European film experts etc.)

A project-based residential seminar, EP2C provides practice-oriented financial and technical information, and management skills, in the main areas of post-production supervision:

- image workflow (traditional versus digital), and special effects: impact of choices on planning and budget;
- sound workflow: impact of choices on schedule and budget;
- budget and financing;
- monitoring schedule and resources;
- rights issues related to the post-production stage;
- promotion and delivery issues.

TARGET GROUP

Producers, post-production supervisors.

BENEFITS

Acquiring and updating all the necessary keys to the post-production stage that producers and post-production supervisors need when working on an international co-production.

Production Value

FOCAL - Foundation for Professional Training in Cinema and Audiovisual Media

DESCRIPTION

The main objective of this workshop is to give junior line producers and assistant directors the methods and tools to deliver professional budgets and shooting schedules as creative input for producers and directors.

The 7-day residential workshop simulates preparations for six existing film projects. Working in teams of two and coached by top-level European professionals, the line producers and assistant directors are assigned real projects in development, brought by directors and producers.

The last two days are devoted to visits by the directors and producers, during which adjustments, presentation of results and evaluation take place.

The producers and directors get fully worked out budgets and schedules, neutral expertise on their film project, experience of sharing their vision of the film with creative operational partners, a better understanding of co-production implications and access to a network of talented operational partners.

TARGET GROUP

Producers, directors, line producers/production managers, first assistant-directors.

BENEFITS

Acquisition by the line producers/assistant directors of a methodology – including mastery of international software – for budgeting and scheduling; enhanced ability to interact at co-production and human resource management levels, and to network with fellow European colleagues.

Essential Legal Framework: Rights Clearance

Erich Pommer Institut

DESCRIPTION

Scripts based on real stories, a Warhol poster in the background of a scene, and a protagonist humming a Robbie Williams song – not all rights contained in a script or a film are that obvious. Only a detailed analysis can avoid cost-intensive pitfalls. Rights clearance is becoming increasingly important, both nationally and internationally.

This seminar and workshop offer the practical knowledge to identify and clear rights fast and effectively. Teaching will combine theoretical and practical work including best practice and strategies.

It covers:

- clearing copyrights, personality rights, music rights, trademarks;
- various case studies presented by internationally experienced experts;
- individual training.

Archidoc

La Fémis - École Nationale Supérieure des Métiers de l'Image et du Son

DESCRIPTION

This project-based training is aimed at documentary directors wishing to benefit while developing their archive-based documentary film from advice and tutoring from experienced filmmakers, producers, and editors as well as from their fellow participants.

The three sessions cover:

- fine-tuning the project, defining the role of archive materials and their place in narration, specific issues linked to archive footage use (archive sources, copyright);
- mainly trailer editing and proposal rewriting;
- pitching projects to producers and commissioning editors.

Participants benefit from distance consultation between sessions. They can also discuss progress with their trainers post-training.

Producers are encouraged to participate in the third session at their own expense; producer participation in the final pitch is highly recommended.

TARGET GROUP

Documentary film directors.

BENEFITS

Having in hand a solid professional file of their project (good trailer, synopsis, note of intent, possibly a treatment) based on well-argued conscious choices; knowledge of how to pitch (having pitched their project to a panel of experts); knowledge of how to go forward, content- and contact-wise. Depending on the project development stage, each participant has ideally established a first contact with a producer, a co-producer or a broadcaster.

ESoDoc

European Social Documentary

ZeLIG School for Documentary, Television and New Media

DESCRIPTION

The programme focuses on a special genre of documentary production that is particularly suitable for the new multiplatform world: documentaries that draw attention to human rights, social justice and environmental protection, particularly in the developing world.

ESoDoc wants to prepare professionals for the markets of tomorrow and make them part of the changing audiovisual world. ESoDoc illustrates the varieties of multi-platform programming and social websites, and teaches how to operate the most common IT tools now available to support documentary programming. Most importantly, ESoDoc teaches participants how to think laterally about their work, to explore ways to adapt their projects and their own role to the changing technologies and new opportunities now challenging us.

ESoDoc offers three 1-week workshops, held over a six-month period, during which participants, either individually or in groups, develop projects based on specific social documentary themes.

An e-platform will provide support during/between workshops and allow continuous collaboration through a library, project-related discussion forums and teacher/tutor/participant dialogue.

TARGET GROUP

Documentary filmmakers.

BENEFITS

The ability to move between broadcasting companies and NGOs; familiarity with conventional ways of making social documentaries and new forms of visual communication in the field of new media/cross-media products.

Ex Oriente Film 2010: Workshop for Creative Documentary Film

Institut Dokumentarniho Filmu (IDF)

DESCRIPTION

This year-long training on documentary films targets Central and East European teams (1 director + 1 producer) with an international workshop that supports the development and funding of creative documentary films across Central and Eastern Europe.

During three 5-7-day residential sessions, filmmakers and producers receive assistance from experienced European producers, directors, trainers, AV experts and tv commissioning editors in order to develop their story, draft a financing strategy for their project and find international partners.

A 4-day evaluation Ex Oriente Film Babies session in Prague in January consists of editing sessions, case studies and screenings of successful finished or almost finished Ex Oriente Films. Ex Oriente Film leads into the East European Forum, a pitching session for East European Creative Docs.

Participants are encouraged to attend some of the major international industry events as their participation is supported by a small scholarship, consultations and assistance with networking.

TARGET GROUP

Producers, directors, new film school graduates.

BENEFITS

Knowledge of how to develop and present a project; support during production and editing of the film; being part of a growing doc community through the web portal www.DOKweb.net and the Ex Oriente Participant Zone with systematic updates on legal, financial aspects and plans, pitching and project development, and all relevant information from the European AV industry.

Masterschool

Documentary Campus e.V. (formerly Discovery Campus e.V.)

DESCRIPTION

In the course of four 5-day workshops over a ten-month Masterschool, participants receive an explicit insight into the development, production and distribution of documentary programmes for the international market. Each participant is supported by two tutors during the development phase and takes part in an internship facilitated by Documentary Campus with an international production or distribution company in their field of interest.

Workshop topics are:

- scriptwriting;
- producing for the international market;
- distribution skills;
- pitching training.

Weekend-long public Open Training Sessions (q.v.) follow each workshop. Upon finishing the Documentary Campus Masterschool, the 15 participants will have delivered a well composed script, a detailed production budget, a financing plan and a convincing promotion and distribution strategy for their project.

The online platform www.reelisor.com provides the opportunity for year-round networking with trainers and tutors.

TARGET GROUP

Documentary makers, authors/script-writers, directors, producers, commissioning editors, inc. newcomers.

CIANT – International Centre for Art and New Technologies (Mezinárodní centrum pro umění a nové technologie)

DESCRIPTION

This is a multidisciplinary training programme.

There are four sessions covering:

- Preservation techniques and methodologies for digital audiovisual works with respect to latest achievements in the area of reference models and repository technologies;
- Integrated approach to 3D cinema and stereoscopy;
- HDTV retrieval and real-time content distribution in network-driven industrial scenarios;
- Distributed post-production techniques in the field of visual effects;

CIANT (International Centre for Art and New Technologies) is a Prague-based not-for-profit organisation oriented towards transdisciplinary exploration of artistic and scientific domains in the context of new media technologies. International collaboration of artists, scientists and technology experts is regarded as essential for its projects in research, production, education and presentation activities.

TARGET GROUP

Producers, new media content providers, distributors, post-production professionals, trainers.

Berlinale Talent Campus

Kulturveranstaltungen des Bundes in Berlin

DESCRIPTION

This is an international summit of talented up-and-coming filmmakers. The six-day programme is an annual event that takes place in parallel with the Berlin International Film Festival. The Campus and its participants benefit from their proximity to the main festival centre and the European Film Market (EFM).

Film professionals early in their careers are invited to learn from top experts through lectures, seminars and workshops, and have the opportunity to build international networks.

The Campus highlights the importance of programme sustainability by providing a living community for participants far beyond the actual event.

TARGET GROUP

Directors, producers, screenwriters, cinematographers, set designers, sound designers/composers, editors, visual artists, actors, film critics/journalists.

BENEFITS

Enhanced intercultural understanding; broader knowledge, appreciation and active critical analysis of film as an essential cultural element and economic force.
